CELEBRATE THE CIVIL RIGHTS YEAR

In 2008, the DFEH, working with local fair housing group Project Sentinel, prosecuted a national origin discrimination case in housing. There, the owners and manager of a Sunnyvale apartment complex were accused of refusing to rent the more expensive and more desirable cathedral ceiling apartments to people of Indian national origin, segregating them in less desirable portions of the complex. The case settled out-of-court for $100,000. The owners also agreed to attend fair housing training, maintain a non-discrimination policy, display a fair housing sign and copies of a DFEH fair housing brochure. See press release at <http://www.dfeh.ca.gov/DFEH/Announcements/pressReleases/SILICON%20VALLEY%20APARTMENT%20COMPLEX.pdf>. Civil rights supporters are invited to collaborate with the DFEH throughout the FEHA's 50th anniversary in 2009. See updated monthly events at www.dfeh.ca.gov.
